

RX-310, Introduction to Fire Effects

IQCS Session #148, Great Basin Training Unit, November 28 – December 2, 2016

Congratulations!!! You have been selected to attend RX-310 Introduction to Fire Effects.

This course is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to recognize and communicate:

- the relationships between basic fire regimes and first order fire effects
- the effects of fire treatments on first order fire effects
- the manipulation of fire treatments to achieve desired first order fire effects.

Logistics:

Where: Great Basin Training Center - Downstairs Auditorium (NIFC Campus – Boise, ID)

When: November 28th – December 2nd, 2016

Start: 1100 Monday – November 28th, 2016

End: 1200 Friday – December 2nd, 2016

- Monday's schedule is 1100 to 1730. Make sure you eat lunch prior to class.
- You must be present for the entire course. Arrange your travel accordingly.

Additional details:

Bring the following to class:

- 1.) Objectives from a burn plan from your home unit.
- 2.) Warm clothes for outdoor presentations on Wednesday afternoon.

A laptop will be helpful for class exercises and we recommend you bring one if it is available however, one is not required to pass the course.

Pre-work:

Successful completion of pre-work (70% or better) is a requirement for passing the course.

Email your completed pre-work to mskudlar@blm.gov by November 14, 2016:

Instructions for pre-work:

- Directions are on the pre-work pages. Please read them carefully.
- Successful completion (70% or better) is a requirement for passing the course.
- Read the questions carefully: you may assume that if a question has several components, points will be awarded for addressing each component.
- The essay questions will be graded based on how well the essay addresses all the component questions, thoughtfulness, discussion and analysis, spelling and grammar.
- Do your own work! You are welcome to collaborate with other students but you are expected to turn in your own answers.

Tuition:

Tuition for this course is $400.00. If you work for an agency other than the BLM, you must pay. To submit your tuition, please fill out the Tuition Form and fax it to the Great Basin Training Center at 208-387-5556.