Northern Rockies Learning Center is a childcare facility which serves federal employees and the Missoula community on the campus of the Missoula Fire, Science and Technology Center (where the Northern Rockies Training Center is located) in Missoula, Montana.

Northern Rockies Learning Center is available for children of parents who attend training at the Northern Rockies Training Center. The childcare center is available for children 6 weeks to 6 years of age. Drop-in fees are $39/day. Age groups are infants (6 weeks- 12 months), waddlers (12 months – 24 months) and 2-6 year olds (preschool). Hours of operation are from 0730-1730, Monday through Friday.

If you are attending training at the Northern Rockies Training Center and would like the opportunity to bring your child to the Learning Center for childcare, please contact Northern Rockies Learning Center director Rebecca Moreno for more information. Mandatory paperwork must be completed for your child to attend before his/her first day. One week notice is required.

For more information, please contact Rebecca Moreno at (406-829-6899) or Kelly Forthofer at (406) 370-6448. Please visit the website as well: northernrockieslearningcenter.com
