

Pacific Southwest Region

Wildland Fire Training Instructor Application

PSW Geographic Area Training Representatives (GATR) are interested in recruiting cadre to teach 300-400 level courses offered in the various Geographic Areas and developing a database of those instructors. The PSW GATR desire that Course Coordinators select cadres representing the wildland fire and aviation workforce of the future, diverse in Agency affiliation, multi-cultural, and experience. These are two levels of instructor skills identified by the National Wildland Fire Coordinating Group (see Field Manager's Guide). We are encouraging Instructors to have completed Facilitative Instructor (M-410) or Instructor 1A & 1B and have taught 100-200 level courses or and equivalent course to apply in a trainee/ mentoring position.

Level II	Unit Instructor- Someone who has completed the course as a student, has completed Facilitative Instructor/ Instructor 1A & 1B, and has taught 300 level courses.
Level I	Lead Instructor- Somemone who has completed the course, has taught all of the units of the course, and has completed Facilitative Instructor/ Instructor 1A & 1B, or an equivanlent.

Geographic Are Training Representatives will consolidate the instructor applications to present to the Course Coordinators. Course Coordinators and Lead Instructors may select cadres for their sessions from these applications.
